DAAD Scholarships 2015/2016 for Doctoral Candidates Academics and Scientists

Dear Asst. Prof. Tossapon,

It gives me great pleasure to inform you about the new scholarship programmes for post-graduate studies and research for the academic year 2015/2016 of the German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD).

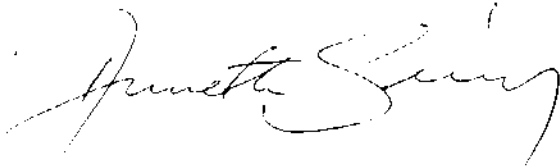

The research grants are available in every academic field. Applicants with a Master's Degree and marks well above average are invited to submit their complete application to the Embassy by 15 October 2014. May I therefore ask you to kindly distribute the information about this programme among your graduate students, teaching staffs and the deans of faculties and kindly inform them about the possibility to continue studies and research in Germany.

Attached please find a leaflet outlining details and conditions of the scholarship programme. Interested students and researchers are very welcome to contact the DAAD Information Centre in Bangkok for further reference and information (www.daad.or.th). The interviews for candidates will take place in November at the Embassy.

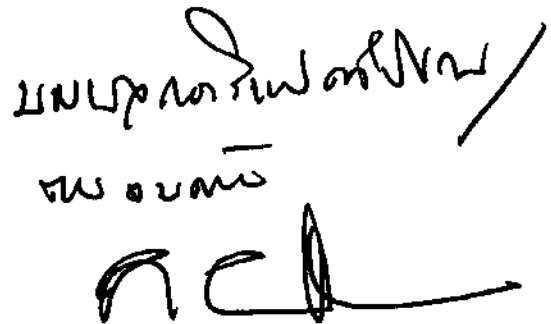

I would like to seize this opportunity to thank you for your personal support and commitment to further enhancing the excellent academic and scientific relations between Thailand and Germany.

Looking forward to meeting you soon, I remain,

With best wishes,

Annette Sévery

DAAD Scholarship Announcement 2015/2016

The German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD) offers scholarships for post-graduate studies and research to Thai nationals for the academic year 2015/2016. Applicants should be academic staff members of universities or research institutes.

The scholarships are available in every academic field. Applicants must have a Master's Degree and marks well above average. At the time of application, generally no more than six years should have passed since the graduate gained the last degree; in the case of doctoral students, no more than three years should have passed since starting the doctoral process; and in the case of postdocs, no more than four years should have passed since gaining the doctorate.

Note: Doctoral theses in the medical field (Dr. med., Dr. med. vet. Dr. med. dent.), further training in a clinical area, specialist medical training in Germany and any other project that requires the scholarship-holder to work as a doctor (with state license "Approbation" or "Permission to temporarily practice medicine") unfortunately cannot be funded.

For additional information on DAAD Research Grants for applicants from Medical Fields, please visit: www.daad.de/deutschland/stipendium/datenbank/en/15064-additional-information-on-daad-research-grants-for-applicants-from-medical-fields/

The Embassy wishes to emphasize that applicants ought to attend intensive German language courses, e. g. at the German Cultural Institute (Goethe-Institut) prior to their departure.

The scholarship, which is extendible to several academic years, includes a monthly allowance varying from Euro 750.-- to 1,000.-- (approx. Baht 30,000.-- to 40,000.--) plus tuition fees, etc., in accordance with the applicant's academic standing. Furthermore, travel expenses to and from Germany, an allowance for German health insurance coverage, as well as initial allowances for clothing and books will be paid by DAAD.

Important: Application forms for the listed scholarship programmes must be filled online through DAAD-Portal at www.funding-guide.de

Applicants are requested to submit their application forms and final academic records, copies of which must be certified by the official authority, not later than between 13.00 to 15.00 hrs. (Monday, Wednesday, Thursday) and 12.00 to 13.00 hrs. (Tuesday and Friday) except weekends, at the Press and Cultural Section of the German Embassy (9 South Sathorn Road, Bangkok). Inquiries can be personally handed to the Embassy as well as to the DAAD Information Center (www.daad.or.th) or DAAD lecturers at some Thai universities.

15 October 2014
